ALL CALLED TO JOIN IN EASTER SERVICES
Feast of Resurrection to Be Observed in Churches of All Denominations Tomorrow
USUAL CATHOLIC MASSES

Easter, the Feast of the Resurrection of Christ, will be celebrated by churches of all denominations tomorrow.

In the Protestant churches of the city will be the main part of the services. Many cantatas have been arranged for both the morning and evening services.

The Catholic Church will celebrate the day in its usual manner. There will be masses from 5 o'clock on in all the churches. Late services in the churches will be a solemn high mass.

The Easter services in the Wisconsin Baptist Church will open the celebration of the fifty-first anniversary of the Bible school, which was founded in 1870.

In the Episcopal Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Thirteenth street and below Spruce, the annual Easter carol service will be given at 4 o'clock. The Rev. David M. Steele, will preach both at 11 and 4 o'clock.

Old Sweden's Church will observe its time-honored custom, in practice for the last fifty years, by holding a special musical service at 6 o'clock in the morning.

An Easter "love-feast" service in honor of the name of Philadelphia will be held in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Twenty-first and Christian streets, at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. The Rev. Dr. George Herbert Toop, pastor, will preach the sermon.

Archbishop Dougherty will celebrate mass in the Cathedral of St. Charles, at 11 o'clock. The assistant priest will be the Very Rev. Joseph A. Whitaker, S. T. L.; deacon of honor, the Rev. Henry T. McFall and Thomas K. Connell; deacon of the mass, the Rev. Walter Dabrowski; subdeacon of the mass, Mr. James McEade; sermon, the Very Rev. Ignatius Smith, O. P.; master of ceremonies, the Rev. Thomas F. McNally.

Easter services will be conducted by the Salvation Army at Philadelphia No. 1 Corps, 3129 Kensington avenue, and at the Memorial Corps, Broad street and Fairmount avenue.

Easter Music in the Churches
At the special Easter music service to be given tomorrow at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, of Overbrook, a string quartet will play the following program: the overture to Wagner's "Die Meistersinger"; the "Light's Glimmering Morn" Heckscher's "Sky" and "The Day" and "Matthew's Magnificat" in C.

The annual recital of Easter carols will be given by the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The choir will sing the following carols, both ancient and modern, and the instrumental accompaniment will be augmented by a quartet of brass instruments.

The Easter music service at the Second Presbyterian Church, Twenty-second and Walnut streets, will include anthems, some with accompaniment of violin, cello and organ and some a cappella. Mrs. Joyce will sing Granter's "Hosanna."

Special Easter music will be given in Summit Church, of Germantown, tomorrow morning. The choir will sing the following program: the overture to Wagner's "Die Meistersinger"; the "Light's Glimmering Morn" Heckscher's "Sky" and "The Day" and "Matthew's Magnificat" in C.

The Philadelphia Music Club will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday afternoon at 8 o'clock at the Adelphi Hotel. The following members will take part in the program: Mrs. H. B. Dorsey, Dorothy Fox, W. Johnson, Marion Leavitt, Esther McGuire, Evelyn Schwartz and Rebecca Reichlin.

W. Leroy Frain will present his pupil, Miss Esther Egendorf, in a piano recital this evening, April 10, in the Newman building, Fuller Building. Cards may be obtained upon application to Room 311, Fuller Building.

THEFT FOILED; TWO SEIZED

Accused of Trying to Steal Locket in Camden Store

Two men giving addresses in this city were arrested this morning after an attempt had been made to steal a gold locket from the jewelry store of Robert J. Gebert, 320 Federal street, Camden.

The men entered the store together. One told Gebert he wanted to buy a locket. He was shown several, and is said to have slipped one into his pocket. When he pushed the others back on the counter and started to leave the store the locket halted both men.

Gebert locked the store door while George Gray, a patrolman, and the other went for a patrolman. The would-be robbers suddenly thrust the jewelry store, unlocked the door and ran down Federal street.

One fugitive was caught at Third and Federal streets. The other was captured at the ferry. When taken to Camden City Hall they said they were Allison Megina and Joe Oliver.

531 DEATHS IN WEEK

Influenza Ended Health Bureau Shows in Decreased Record

In its weekly statement issued today, the division of vital statistics of the Bureau of Health announced 531 deaths for the week ending yesterday, a decrease of 51 from the corresponding week last year and a decrease of twenty-nine from last week's figures.

The virtual end of the influenza epidemic is evident in the fact that there were only seven deaths due to this cause. Seventy-seven deaths were due to pneumonia and bronchial pneumonia. The death list includes 373 men and 185 women.
